Umbrella company or other intermediary pay information

You are being employed by an umbrella company or other intermediary: a third-party organisation that will calculate your tax and other deductions and then pay you for the work undertaken for the hirer. We will still be finding you assignments.

The money earned on your assignments will be transferred to the umbrella company or other intermediary as part of their income. They will then pay you your wage. All the deductions made which affect your wage are listed below and we have provided an example calculation by way of illustration. If you have any queries about the deductions being made, either before or during your assignment, please contact your umbrella company or intermediary.

Your payslip may show you as an employee of the umbrella company or other intermediary listed below.
